

Dover, TN

Insufficient Information

Dec. 16, 1811

Kentucky Gazette
Jan. 28, 1812

New Orleans, December 25

A letter to the editor from a friend at Dover, Stewart County, states the same particulars of the earthquake as felt here, and concludes by observing, "that a small piece of ground on Well's Creek in this county, has sunk so as to form a kind of sink hole - the place is about 20 or 30 feet square, but by the time the report reaches you it will be magnified to as many acres at least."